الصالون المتوسطي
الحادي عشر للفلاحة
والصناعات الغذائية

The 11th Mediterranean
Exhibition of Agriculture and Food Industry

GENERAL REGULATION

I- Participation and admission (Article 2) :

2-1: Any participation in an event organized by the AFIS (organizer) requires an application for participation made by an individual or a corporation as represented by a person authorized to deal with the organizer.

2-2: Participation in events organized by the AFIS must be in accordance with the criteria for acceptance and selection set and appreciated by the organizer.

However, the application form is admissible by the organizer only if it is accompanied by:

- the excerpt of the General Regulations as approved and signed by the applicant materializing his commitment to respect and comply with the legal effects of these regulations.

- a copy of the the applicant's tax identification number and an updated extract of the trade register.

- a payment proof on behalf of the organizer, a deposit of 40% of the rental price and required fees as mentioned on the application form provided by the organizer. (*)

II- Rent and registration fees, billing and payment (Article 4):

4-1: The deposit, stipulated in Article 2-3 above will be refunded fully if the applicant is not entitled to participate and partially (50% all taxes included) if canceled at the request of the exhibitor registered at least 20 days before the start of the event. Yet the deposit will be automatically acquired by AFIS if the withdrawal of the application occurs after the said period. However, the file opening fee and registration fee set at 100$ per stand is always acquired by the organizer whatever the outcome of the application.

4-2: The balance of the amounts owed by the exhibitor is due on or before the provision of the agreed location.

Both parties expressly agree that the total invoice amount (rent and charges) remains acquired for the organizer, even if the exhibitor is the subject of a suspension or closure under these general regulations (article below) or if the exhibitor willingly decides not to continue his participation. (*)

III- Location (Article 5):

5-1: The organizer establishes the exhibition plan based on available space and its sole discretion of applications; it exclusively allocates the locations to the exhibitors.

5-4: It is expressly forbidden to assign, sublease or exchange, with or without consideration, all or part of the site allocated by the organizer; any duly recorded offense entails the forfeiture of any right to subsequent access to AFIS spaces. (*)

IV- Occupancy of the leased sites (Article 6):

6-1: The locations leased and allocated by the organizer are available to the exhibitors within the time previously set by the organizer and must be occupied, arranged, equipped and furnished by the exhibitor no later than 12 hours before the opening of the event. The stands must be end arranged, stocked and ready for visitor access to the date and time of opening; otherwise the exhibitor undergoes financial penalties set at 10% of the total rental amount.

V- Installation and particular arrangements (Article 7)

7-1: Generally it is the organizer who pays for decorating the entire exhibition space and the exhibitors get the spaces assigned to them in the condition found; they will have to leave them in the same state; any damage will be evaluated and they will make up for it. However, any exhibitor who wishes to assemble and arrange a stand in his way, is invited to make a written request to the organizer and comply, in case of a favorable reply, the special provisions of these General Regulations.

VI- Sales to visitors (Article 9):

9-1: The direct sale by producers to visitors is subject to authorization by the services of the Ministry of Trade and Crafts. (*)

VII- Power supplies and miscellaneous supplies (Article 10):

10-1: The organizer ensures bear adequate power supply to the needs of lighting the stand or space and that of decorative patterns and store signs consistent with the authorized heights.

10-2: For all other benefits such as a prime mover or fluid equipment, the exhibitor must submit a special request to the organizer who answers based on his sole discretion of the desirability and feasibility, and in case of favorable reply, the costs of additional facilities, consumption and rehabilitation are charged extra on the bill of the exhibitor.

10-5: When closing the stands, the exhibitor is required to turn off the lighting lights of all kinds. Electrical outlets for powering, if necessary, conditioning equipment (food or animals) that must be on require an application in writing to the Organizer.

VIII- Service hours (Article 11)

See Table below .

IX- Guarding (Article 12):

12-1: During the closing hours to the exhibitors and visitors the organizer provides at its charge and to the best of care, a guarding service and monitoring of exhibition spaces. (*)

X- Cleaning (Article 13):

13-1: The appearance of the stands and related areas must remain impeccable throughout the event. To this end, the general maintenance of halls (aisles, corridors and open spaces) is provided by the care of the organizer to its exclusive discretion and scheduling it deems appropriate; however, the inside cleaning of the stand is the responsibility of the exhibitor who must insure it himself or by a provider approved by the organizer, outside the opening hours of stands to visitors. (*)

XI- Insurance (Article 14):

14-1: Exhibitors must comply with the provisions of Law No. 24-92 / 19 March 1992 on the enactment of the Insurance Code and its implementing regulations.

Beyond the insurance inherent in its business and for the payment of a lump sum of one hundred dinars (100$) per stand, the organizer shall apply to exhibitors the following coverages:

- Civil responsibility operating towards visitors and third parties.

- Fire Insurance covering the exhibitor's products and goods within the limits of a value stated by the organizer in the participation file. If the exhibitor considers that that value stated is not sufficient, he is requested to take care of the extra charges for a rider to be concluded with the organizer's insurer.

GENERAL REGULATION

14-2: The coverage is exercised only on property within the venue of the exhibition and exclusively during the opening of the event to the exhibitors.

14-3 Any claim can be reported only:

- with reference to the declaration of assets form signed by the exhibitor before the start of the event.
- within 24 hours, after which the organizer declines all responsibility. (*)

XII- Badges, Invitations and tickets (Article 16)

16-1: For all events (trade shows and trade fairs), the stand managers are provided with name badges issued by the organizer that they must wear as long as they are on the scene of the event; therefore the exhibitor is asked to submit to the organizer the list of names of those responsible for three (3) days at least before the opening of the event; however, is specific reference to the Sfax International Fair (held in the month of June) the presentation of badges can under no circumstances occur on the opening day and after the 4th day of the opening. (*)

XIII- Exploitation of exhibition areas (Article 17):

17-1: Throughout the course of an event (show or fair), it is strictly forbidden to exhibitors:

a / to practise loud calls aloud and touting, in any way.

b / to go beyond the size and height of the exhibition space allocated; exhibitors must not in any way obstruct the aisles or encroach on them by the use of elements whose shapes, colors, volumes and surfaces are cumbersome or incompatible with the conventions of the exhibition.

c / to use the speakers or put music on that might disturb the other participants and visitors; loudness issued on a stand must not in any case exceed the tolerance threshold of 40 decibels that the organizer is entitled to monitor for the duration of the event and in case of violations turn to the switching off the power supply and the seizure of the equipment.

d / to distribute documents or releases that have nothing to do with the theme of the event.

At any breach of the above mentioned instructions a notice will be sent to the offender before the stockpiling of goods until the end of the event in case of recurrence. (*)

XIV- Dismantling and evacuation of the stands (Article 19):

19-1 The stands must be dismantled and evacuated immediately after the closure by the exhibitors and under their responsibility at the latest within the time fixed by the organizer and indicated in the participation file.

19-2 However, the removal of products and materials cannot be made without an exit pass issued by the organizer after payment of the invoice due.

19-4 The evacuation of stands includes goods, articles, special decorations, as well as residual waste materials and packaging used in the decoration, layout and equipment of stands; it must be completed by the exhibitors within the period aforementioned.

19-5 After the above-mentioned period, the organizer can carry the objects in the exhibition space to a warehouse of his choice at the expense and risk of the exhibitor and without being held responsible for total or partial damage or loss. Any delay in the removal of the exhibits will result in storage costs, calculated from the expiry of the said period at 50$ per day of delay.

XV- Penalties (Article 20):

20-3: Penalties

Compliance with these general regulations by the exhibitor, being rigorous, any violation duly noted by the organizer may, at the discretion of the organizer, lead to, besides the application of special sanctions stipulated in the regulation, the closure of the stand of the offender; this is so particularly in the following cases: bill payment default, non-compliance with the arrangement, non-compliance with safety rules, no stand occupation and the presence of non-compliant products to the concept or nomenclature.
