FOREWORD

Harris Geronikolas
President

Rashad Mabger
Secretary General

Dear Readers,

The series of our Chamber's activities for 2017 was concluded with the convening of the 6th Arab Hellenic Economic Forum which was preceded, among others, by two major events, the "Workshop on Doing Business in the Arab World" and the "2nd Iraqi-European Business & Investment Forum". On this note, we would like to extend our warm appreciation to all our members and non-members for their kind and encouraging words of support.

Looking forward to this year's events, we are setting foot in 2018 with the convening of the 2nd Workshop on "The Culture of Business and Doing Business in the Arab World" on March 22, 2018. This event is designed to provide the Greek business community with insight, information and knowledge on the business environment in the Arab world and to facilitate their presence and business expansion to the area.

The Workshop will include addresses by Experts, Arab Ambassadors and Greek Economic and Commercial Counsellors of the Greek Embassies in Algeria, Egypt, Iraq, Jordan, Lebanon, Libya, Morocco, Oman, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, Syria, Tunisia, the United Arab Emirates and Yemen.

The second scheduled activity is the upcoming business trip to Jordan, Iraq and Lebanon, on March 23, 2018. All three countries have attractive markets and present themselves as excellent business opportunities for the Greek companies. The value of Greece's exports to these three countries, for the past three years, has been on the rise which comes as no surprise given the fact that Greek companies have been successfully establishing themselves in the markets around the world, mainly due to their positive business attitude, their high-quality products and competitive prices. Consequently, with the right approach, there is a great potential for further expansion in the afore-mentioned countries.

Jordan and Lebanon have common characteristics, such as good working environments, newly emerged business hubs and centres for commercial redistribution. In the case of Iraq, the business opportunities are limitless, especially in the area of re-building the country's infrastructure. Similarly, Greek businesses should not miss an opportunity to enter into negotiations with Iraqi businessmen with regard to the transfer of their know-how in domains such as food processing industry, energy, building material and maritime. We, at the Chamber, in coordination with Federations and Chambers of Commerce in the three countries, will ensure the arrangement of B2B meetings for every participating businessman in the sector they are interested in. All in all, we have all the reasons to expect the most favourable outcome of this business initiative so you shouldn't miss this opportunity to join us.

"Three Markets, One Goal: Greek Business Delegation

IN ITS CONTINUOUS EFFORTS to offer distinguished services to its members and the Greek business community at large, the Arab-Hellenic Chamber is organizing a business delegation to Jordan, Iraq and Lebanon, March 23 - 30, 2018.

For the first time, our Chamber's delegation will visit 3 (three) different Arab countries and B2B meetings will take place in all business sectors between the Greek participants and their Arab counterparts.

The states of Jordan, Iraq and Lebanon (with a total population of about 52 million inhabitants) maintain strong commercial relations with Greece, with great potential for improvement in their trade balance.

It is noteworthy that the Greek exports to these three Arab countries for the years of 2015, 2016 and the first semester of 2017 have demonstrated significant increase. Jordan, with its stable market and diversified economy, is an important business hub for the wider Middle-Eastern region. Iraq, after years of instability, is once again “ready for business”, while Lebanon continues to be one of Greece's closest trade partners and a major regional economic center.

Given the above, it becomes evident that the planned business delegation of the Arab-Hellenic Chamber offers a unique opportunity for the promotion of Greek products and services to the rising Arab market.

It is noted that the delegation is organized in cooperation with the Chambers of Commerce of the three aforementioned countries, thus providing the assurance of B2B meetings for every Greek participant with Arab company representatives in the sectors he is related with or interested in.

Don't miss this opportunity to join us.

Commercial Pilot and Cabin Crew Training Programs

The evening of the 14th of December 2017 was a special one for everyone at Global Aviation SA, as we celebrated 20 years since the academy's incorporation in 1997. More than 450 good friends, including students, graduates, business partners, employees and associates, joined us in Grand Bretagne Hotel in Athens to celebrate 20 years of pioneering, innovation, growth and ultimately success that propelled a small family business into an aviation training powerhouse in the region and the leading pilot academy in Greece.

As Global Aviation's founder Markos Tsaktanis said in his welcoming speech, the road to success was not always paved with roses, but everyone at Global Aviation worked hard, fought selflessly and remained loyal to the company's founding principles. This is merely the beginning of the journey for Global Aviation and we would like to thank everyone who has helped make this organisation more than an academy, more than a company, a family that we are all proud of.

SALFO S.A.

We are proud to announce that SALFO has been awarded a milestone transportation project in KSA. The principal scope of this project is the development of a full National Parking Management Plan for the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia that will formulate the overall National Master Parking Strategy System for the whole country. The study will involve research in 20 cities with population more than 200,000 inhabitants and will address all issues of parking behavior in order to elaborate an efficient centralized parking management, control and information system for the KSA.

The Plan will include the assessment - and revision, as necessary - of all the existing parking systems in KSA. The assessment concerns: conducting passenger intercept surveys, gathering data on daily movements, collecting archived system data that documents in and out counts at the lots, as well as conducting a series of interviews with the stakeholders. Based on the research /surveys results, we will develop a unique environment of applications for GEO-data based parking management system with the use of a properly calibrated mathematical model. Through the use of Variable Message Signs [VMS], these systems can provide motorists with real-time information about parking availability at appropriate decision points on their route so that they can make an informed decision about where to park.

CO₂ footprint matters!

Nowadays, companies follow a major trend to reduce the carbon footprint of their products.

A carbon footprint is historically defined as the total set of greenhouse gas emissions caused by an individual, event, organisation, or product, expressed as carbon dioxide equivalent. Aluminum is part of global efforts to increase environmental safety and mitigate risks to climate change.

Aluminium is part of global efforts to increase environmental safety and mitigate the climate change risks. The production of aluminium is one the most environmentally friendly processes across the metals and mining industry. Aluminium can be endlessly recycled while keeping its distinctive properties. Moreover, it is used to produce energy efficient transport and construct eco-friendly buildings.

Aluminium, the metal of the future!

The development and future of mankind relies on it. The increasing world population needs more roads and buildings as well as a sufficient amount of crafts and vehicles to carry the soaring number of passengers. It is aluminium that makes it all possible.

Athens International Airport S.A. (AIA)

In view of the opening of the new Muscat terminal, Athens International Airport S.A. (AIA) and Oman Airports Management Company have entered -as of August 2017- into a framework agreement for the provision of on-the-job training to the personnel of OAMC.

Within an intensive full week programme, the curriculum covers a broad spectrum of functions. including airfield and terminal operations, BHS systems, infrastructure maintenance, environmental and property management.

Within the context of the curriculum, the trainees experience the workings of an actual international airport environment. The programme has been tailored to offer the participants a high degree of familiarization with the modern industry best practices; in this spirit, they are fully exposed to AIA's in-house expertise that have established the Athens Airport company as one of the most successful airport operators worldwide.

Until now, seventy-six (76) trainees from the Muscat and Salalah airports have already concluded their training. For more than a decade, Athens International Airport has been successfully supporting airport operators around the world through the offering of training and consulting services.

Since its opening in March 2001, Athens International Airport has achieved a very positive track record highlighted by numerous awards for a variety of activities. Among them, AIA's operational efficiency, airport marketing, and year-long systematic efforts for environmental protection / energy saving to reduce its ecological footprint, have been widely recognized.

Having completed a full renovation upgrade project in its terminal areas in 2017, Athens International Airport offers a total new passenger experience focusing on functionality, comfort, and modern design. In terms of traffic and connectivity, Athens International Airport recorded an all-time high traffic performance in the previous year. With 21.74 million passengers, the airport's passenger traffic surpassed the previous year's traffic by 1.7 million (+8.6%), an outcome mainly driven by the strong growth of the international market (+12%).

Athens International Airport S.A. -established in 1996 as a Public-Private Partnership with a concession to build and operate the airport- is a privately managed company, with the Greek State holding 55% of shares, while the private shareholders collectively hold 45%. The airport company has undertaken a series of pivotal roles, i.e. airport manager and employer, and, importantly, that of a responsible corporate citizen.
