14th ARAB-HELLENIC ECONOMIC FORUM

Athens, 27 & 28 November, 2025

Under the Auspices

Contribution & Support

The Arab-Hellenic Chamber is organizing its main event, the 14th Arab-Hellenic Economic Forum, at the Divani Caravel Hotel, Athens, Greece, on November 27-28, 2025.

The Scope

This forum will focus on the construction and energy sectors, along with their related fields. The importance of these two sectors lies in their strategic and economic significance, as they are fundamental for enhancing cooperation and partnership between Greece and the Arab world.

The forum will highlight the mutual advantages both sides enjoy in terms of geographical proximity and strategic location, as well as the promising opportunities for collaboration and partnership. Greece's expertise in construction and infrastructure projects in the Arab world, along with its advancements in energy and building materials, adds to the potential for expanding cooperation with the Arab region. This collaboration will be driven by resources and ambitious visions that can foster innovation and growth between both sides.

The forum will be conducted in Arabic and Greek, with simultaneous translation provided. English may also be used during closed roundtable discussions, where participation is based on prior notification by attendees.

Topics of Discussion

- ✓ Construction projects and infrastructure in the Arab world, along with the economic visions of certain countries in these fields
- ✓ Innovative construction methods, prefabricated systems, and sustainable materials for housing adapted to climate change challenges.
