CHAMBER'S PROFILE

The Arab-Hellenic Chamber was founded on 1 December 1979 under Law No. 990/1979, with its statute defined by Greek Presidential Decree No. 421/1981 as a joint, non-profit institution based in Athens. It operates under the supervision of the Greek Ministry of Development, and its activities cover Greece and all Arab countries.

MISSION

Promoting Arab-Greek relations and developing cooperation in trade, investment, agriculture, technology, shipping, maritime, logistics and transportation, energy, construction, real estate, healthcare, and tourism, among others.

SERVICES

- Opening channels of communication between Arabs and their Greek counterparts
- Organizing conferences, forums, workshops, and in-person or virtual meetings
- Arranging business delegations to Arab countries
- Promoting members' businesses, products, and services
- Offering market information, business opportunities, bulletins, and statistics
- Certifying commercial documents
- Non-official translation between Arabic, Greek, and English

MEMBERS

Companies, institutions, and individuals from Arab countries or Greece may join the Chamber provided their activities are relevant to its objectives. Active members are entitled to take part in General Assembly meetings, vote, and stand for election to the Chamber's bodies.
